The Bijou presents a very high class picture in the "Tragedy of Mendum" to-day. The dramatic thread of this little tragedy is the jealousy of a woman toward her daughter-in-law, and the artistic manner in which the different characters are portrayed is indeed commendable. The rest of the entertainment is good.

"Tony" is the oldest fruit dealer in town, and has lasted through hard times and good. This fact goes to show that people who have brought these have been pleased and content to buy their fruit of him. Moderate prices and finest quality is "Tony's" watchword. One can see a very good assortment of seasonal fruit there to-day.

"Liberty for an Hour" at the Theatre is one of the prettiest little dramas we have yet shown. The scenes in the flower laden fields with the children and the byplay of the convict and the child are beautifully rendered. This is an immensely pleasing story of undoubted merit. "The Judge's Whiskers," an intensely humorous production of an unfortunate judge. He is the funniest man we have seen on the moving picture screen for months and months.

Among arrivals at the Hotel Otis yesterday were J. H. Hinman, North Stratford, N. H.; J. E. Burke, West Rutland; G. Blodgett, Providence, R. I.; Henry J. Lang, Denver, Colo.; John L. Bartlett, New York; Charles D. Stevens, Bangor, Me.; Thomas Anderson, Sherbrooke, Que.; Charles H. Friend, Bridgeport, Conn.; James C. Anderson, Detroit; Francis Jewell, George J. Jewell, Albany, N. Y.; Metcalf, Orlando, Fla.

S. J. Segel and company have on sale for Saturday at half price several lots of broken up sizes of men's and young men's summer suits, in two and three pieces, which must be closed out to make room for men's fall goods. You can buy a $10 suit for $5, an $8 suit for $4, a $6 suit for $3, a $15 suit for $7.50. Still a good assortment of sizes, some from $4 to $44. Many of the suits are suitable for all-the-year-around wear. All new styles and this year's make. No old "cheaters." Come in and see them for yourself.

Rev. G. B. Castellani of Montreal, the Italian missionary who is to have charge of the mission here, arrived in the city last night to take up his work.

Mrs. Cynthia Parmenter returned to her home in Franklin, N. H., to-day after a visit at the home of her brother, Charles W. Hall of Hill street.

S. J. Segel & company put on sale for Saturday at half price about forty pairs of men's cotton working pants, sizes from 32 to 42, ranging in price from $1 to $1.50, for Saturday only, at only 75c a pair. Come early in the evening to get your size.

Page Brothers' horse, The Outlaw, who took second money in the 2:19 class race at the Middlebury fair yesterday, took first in the two first heats. The Outlaw won the first heat in 2:17 1/2, lowering his record of 2:19 and making him eligible to start in no slower class than 2:18.

The Central Vermont railroad commenced today running better cars on the local branch passenger service. It now runs a full vestibule train, cutting off the smoking car since the coaches have smoking compartments, the same as the New England States Limited train. It is not known whether the change is to be permanent.

Among arrivals at the City hotel and to-day were Herman Goldman, C. F. Hastings, George H. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Borden, Charles Slack, C. H. Hodel, Windham, Mass.; P. Berry, Richmond; C. H. Bowen, Pawtucket, R. I.; F. F. Fisher, New York; F. F. Fraser, West Burke; R. H. Symes, Wells River; F. J. Ackerman, Vershire; E. E. Sargent, Frank G. Houston, St. Johnsbury; John Roark, Chazy, N. Y.

"Traced by a Kodak" is a picture to-day at Dreamland which makes an especial appeal to children, but cannot fail to interest the children of a larger growth also. It is a picture story of a little girl and her beautiful, intelligent pony; how the gypsies stole it and subsequent dealing with them to get it back. It truly is a fine, wholesome picture.

"A Hot Time in Atlantic City" will enlighten a good many as to the ways of this noted summer resort. Altogether, the show is prime quality.

That "accidents will happen" is a very old and a very true saying; indeed, they always happen when we least expect them. We have no doubt but that a very painful accident happened in the making of the moving picture, entitled, "A Heroic Father," that is begin run at the Comique to-day and to-morrow. We see a picturesque wooded background, profusely tinted with the beautiful colors of nature. Out of the distance comes a young lady urging a spirited horse to its utmost speed, behind her a band of outlaws are plying the spur and lash to their horses in an effort to overtake her. Suddenly the girl is thrown from the horse and falls directly in its path. The scene that follows strikes terror to one's heart. The horse tramples her to the earth, the cruel iron hoof beats against her body with awful force. That is what an accident there is no doubt, whether she was seriously hurt or not will always remain an untold story to those who witness the picture. One thing that is significant is that she is seen in the scenes that follow. That these subsequent scenes were taken after several weeks of suffering may be possible, as several months are sometimes consumed in the making of a single picture.

There will be a special communication of Granite Lodge, No. 35, F. & A. M., Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Work, E. C. degree. Per order W. M.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Base Ball Player Instantly Killed Before 1,000 Spectators.

Atlantic City, Aug. 27.—In full view of nearly 1,000 persons William Bedford of Cairo, Ill., a negro, second baseman of the Cuban Giants base ball team, was instantly killed by lightning yesterday afternoon while practicing before the game with the Atlantic City team. The bolt struck the ground close to the player and ran through the spikes in his shoes into his body. Although dead when picked up, Bedford's body carried no burns nor other marks of injury. Short Stop Walter Gordon and Charles Follis, the catcher, were knocked down by the shock without being injured. The spectators sitting in the stands felt the shock but there was no stampede.

Did Much Shooting.

Claremont Man Stirs Up the Air With His Bombardment.

Claremont, N. H., Aug. 27.—The police are searching for Joseph Chamberlain. He has committed a series of offenses his wife says.

"Tuesday he wanted me to live with him," she stated, "and upon my refusal he drew a revolver and said he would shoot me. I fought with him and held his arm until Maurice Houghton came in and took the revolver."

Yesterday morning the neighborhood on North street were stirred by pistol shots and Mrs. Horace Eaton Walker said:

"I saw Joe Chamberlain sitting on the well stone overlooking and saying 'I'll shoot her'—all got up and fell then he shot his revolver toward Sugar river. Then went into a shed and shot again. Coming out he said 'Now I'll blow her brains out this morning. I'll finish her now.'"

He walked to his wife's apartment and a shot was heard. Before he shot he tried the door. Fortunately his wife was away, the police say, and the only thing disturbed was a pane of glass where it is supposed the bullet went through the window.

The couple are married 11 years ago, and the wife received a divorce three years ago, and she says he returned three weeks ago promising to do better and upon advice of the police she remarried him. One child is living. Mrs. Chamberlain and the Hought
